

The Kinsey Institute invites you and your friends to a

Midsummer Open House & Reception

- Greet the KI Researchers and learn more about their work (5:30-7:00 pm)
- Gather for a behind-the-scenes tour of the gallery and library collections
- Attend a talk titled “How Local is Global,” by Dr. Julia Heiman, Director of The Kinsey Institute (7:00 pm)
- Meet local Friends and enjoy complimentary local food & beer provided by Lennie’s, Bloomington Brewing Co., FARM Bloomington and Oliver Winery (7:15 pm)

Alfred Kinsey, 1950s, photo by William Dellenback

When? Thursday, July 31, 5:30-8:00 pm

Cost? Free

Where? Inside The Kinsey Institute and
Outside in the Morrison Hall courtyard
(In case of rain, reception will be in The Hoagy Carmichael Room, Ground floor of Morrison Hall)

The Kinsey Institute, Morrison Hall 3rd Floor, 1165 East Third Street, Bloomington, IN 47405

Please RSVP by July 21st

by emailing Terra Fuller at tefuller@indiana.edu or calling (812)855-1557

